Assistant principals named at Glenbard East, Glenbard North

Two educators will bring their strengths and energy to the team in Glenbard Township High School District 87.

The Board of Education on July 21 approved hiring Theresa Hanrahan as assistant principal for instruction at Glenbard East High School in Lombard and Brian Waterman as assistant principal for operations at Glenbard North High School.

Hanrahan has been a social studies department chairman with Leyden Community High Schools in Franklin Park; the humanities division chairman at Round Lake High School, and associate principal/dean of students at Regina Dominican High School in Wilmette.

Waterman comes to Glenbard from Westmont Unit School District 201, where he was assistant principal at Westmont High School. He earned a master's degree in educational leadership from North Central College and a master of business administration degree from Eastern Illinois University. He earned his bachelor's degree from Eastern Illinois University.

Hanrahan earned a master's degree in educational leadership from the University of Illinois at Chicago and a master's degree in religious studies from Mundelein College. She earned her bachelor's degree from Loyola University of Chicago.
